

Airplane

Sam and Pam were playing with his red airplane.

“Here it comes, Pam!” Sam said.

Pam ran to get the airplane, but so did Jazz!

Jazz got the airplane and ran off with it.

“No, Jazz!” said Sam. “Take it away from her, Pam. We need to take good care of the airplane.”

Pam said, “Give that back, Jazz!”

Jazz kept running. She did not give it back.

Sam said, “Jazz, come here. Give it to me. Come here, Jazz.”

Jazz went to Sam and dropped the airplane. “Jazz, do not take it again. That was bad. We want to play with it.”

Jazz looked sad. “She just wants to play too,” said Pam to

Sam. “Yes,” said Sam, “but she cannot play with this because she will mess it up. Let’s go play outside.”

Airplane, Part 2

Sam said, "Mom, can we go out to play so Jazz will not take the airplane away from us?"

"Yes," said Mom. "But if it looks like it will rain, come back.

I do not want you to get wet. Have fun!"

Sam and Pam went outside to look for a good spot to play.

Pam said, "We can play in the grass next to the pond."

Sam and Pam had a lot of fun playing. Then a big wind came and the airplane went up, up, up!

"Oh, no!" said Pam and Sam. Pam and Sam did not want it to go in the pond. It fell in the grass next to ducks.

"Quack, quack, quack!" went the ducks.

Sam said, "I am glad it did not go in the pond!"

"Me too," said Pam. "But the ducks are mad. We should go play on the path."

Airplane, Part 3

Sam and Pam got the airplane and went to play on the path.

Sam and Pam had a lot of fun playing. But then a big wind came and the airplane went up and in a big plant.

“Oh no!” said Sam and Pam. “Here we go again,” said Sam.

Sam said, “How will we get it out of this big plant?”

“I can get on your back and get it out,” said Pam.

Pam got on Sam’s back and got the airplane.

Sam said, “Good job, Pam! Thank you! I am glad it is not stuck in that plant. Let’s go play next to that bench.”

Sam and Pam went next to the bench and had a lot of fun playing. But then a big wind came and the airplane went away.

“Oh no, not again,” said Pam.

Just then a kid ran and got the airplane.

Airplane, Part 4

He was very happy to have it.

He held it up and played with it.

Pam said, "What will we do? We need to get it back from that kid."

Sam said, "He looks very happy. Look at his big grin."

Pam said, "Oh, I just felt a rain drop. It is going to rain. We need to go back. But how will we get your airplane back from that kid?"

"He looks so happy. He can have it," said Sam with a grin.

"Want to run back? We can go play with Jazz."

"I bet I will get there first," said Pam as she ran off.